APPENDIX A.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The committee on the state of religion beg leave to report, that the letters from the different churches represent the cause of the Redeemer to be in a flourishing condition in many parts of the territory of our Association. Cheering accounts have reached us, which have caused our hearts to rejoice in the goodness of God. Sinners have been brought to see their condition by nature, and found the Savior precious to their souls; prodigals have found the husks, the food of the swine, to be food improper for them, and have returned rejoicing to their Father's house. Brethren have been much warmed up and strengthened in the faith once delivered to the saints. Although some of the churches have not, during the past year, enjoyed the fullness of the love of God, yet peace appears to abound in all, and a great degree of brotherly love is felt and enjoyed by all.

Upon the whole, we have great reason to be thankful to our heaveuly Father for his goodness, and we would earnestly enjoin it upon all brethren to live strictly in the discharge of each and every duty, to converse and pray often one with another, humbling themselves before God in supplication, that he would continue his blessings to his people.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. ABNEY, Chairman.

APPENDIX B.

REPORT ON DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

The Board of Domestic Missions feel thankful to a merciful Providence in being thus permitted to make their fourth annual report.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Association, your Board, in pursuance of the duties assigned them, held a meeting, at which Elder J. D. Abney was appointed to preach in the western division of the Association, and proceeded forthwith to the work assigned him. Elder L. P. Merrill was appointed to preach in the eastern division of the Association, but at our first quarterly meeting informed us that he could not comply with our wishes; whereupon Elder R. Y. Rasberry was appointed to fill his place, who accepted, and proceeded to his field of labor. The reports of your missionaries are of a cheering character—difficulties have given way, and prospects of doing good have opened before them. Much useful labor has been performed. Feeble churches have been strengthened, others constituted. The highways have been visited, and many influenced to come in, and, we trust, the general interest of Zion promoted. Your missionaries have labored 263 days in your service, preached 192 sermons, assisted in the constitution of three churches and baptized 55 persons, traveling 3,917 miles. Many families have been visited for religious conversation.—Bibles, Testaments, tracts and other religious publications have been circulated. In conclusion, your Board feel encouraged to persevere in the good work. There remains yet much land to be possessed.—

Will you go up and possess it? The cry, come over and help us, often reaches our ears. Will you go? The fields are white unto the harvest. Will you assist the laborers to gather them in? We hope you will. Respectfully submitted,

WM. DENSON, Chairman.

APPENDIX C.

REPORT ON PETITIONS AND REQUESTS.

The committee on petitions and requests, having had the subject under consideration, beg leave to recommend,

1, That the request from Friendship church to be supplied by the missionary of the Association, be referred to the Board of Domestic Missions.

2. That the requests from Bethel and Mountain Hill churches for the next session of this Association to be held with them, be referred to the delegates from the fourth district.

3. That the request from Fellowship and Benevolence churches, for an alteration of Articles of Faith, claims the serious consideration of the Association; and your committee having duly considered the subject, would recommend, in order to harmonize the feelings of the churches, that the Association have printed in her minutes the Baptist Abstract, or Articles of Faith found in the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, and recommend to the churches its investigation, and the propriety of adopting it in place of the present one, and request them to clothe their delegates to the next session of the Association with full power to act in the matter.

4. The proposition from the Pearl River Association, the committee recommend to the consideration of the Association.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. K. GREEN, Chairman.

DECLARATION OF FAITH.

I. OF THE SCRIPTURES.

We believe the Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired, and is a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; (1) that it has God for its author, salvation for its end, (2) and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter; (3) that it reveals the principles by which God will judge us; (4) and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the true centre of christian union, (5) and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds and opinions should be tried. (6.)

Places in the Bible where taught.

(1.) 2 Tim. iii, 16, 17. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Also 2 Pet. i. 21; 2 Sam. xxiii, 2; Acts i. 16; iii. 21; John x. 25; Luke xvi. 29—31; Ps. cxix. 111; Rom. iii. 1, 2.

2. 2 Tim. iii. 15.—the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation. Also, 1 Pet. i. 10—12; Acts xi. 14; Rom. i. 16; Mark xvi. 16; John v. 34—39.

3. Prov. xxx. 5, 6. Every word of God is pure. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. Also, John xvii. 17; Rev xxii. 18, 19; Rom. iii. 4

4. Rom. ii. 12. As many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law. John xii. 47, 48. If any man hear my words—the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Also, 1 Cor. iv. 3, 4; Luke x. 10—16; xii. 47, 48.

5. Phil. iii. 16. Let us walk by the same rule; let us mind the same thing. Also, Ephes. iv. 3—6; Phil. ii. 1, 2; 1 Cor. i. 10; 1 Pet iv. 11.

6. 1 John iv. 1. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they be of God. Isa. viii. 20. To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. 1 Thes. v. 21. Prove all things. 2 Cor. xiii. 5. Prove your own selves. Also, Acts xvii. 11; 1 John iv. 6; Jude 3d verse; Eph. vi. 17; Ps. cxix. 59, 60; Phil. i. 9—11.

II. OF THE TRUE GOD.

That there is one, and only one, true and living God, whose name is JEHOVAH, the Maker and Supreme Ruler of Heaven and Earth, 1; inexpressibly glorious in holiness, 2; worthy of all possible honor, confidence and love, 3, revealed under the personal and relative distinctions of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, 4; equal in every divine perfection, 5; and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption, 6.

III. OF THE FALL OF MAN.

That man was created in a state of holiness, under the law of his Maker, 1; but by voluntary transgression fell from that holy and happy state, 2; in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners, 3; not by constraint but choice, 4; being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by the law of God, wholly given to the gratification of the world, of Satan, and of their own sinful passions, and therefore under just condemnation to eternal ruin, 5; without defence or excuse, 6.

And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise; she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat: and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.—Therefore the Lord God—drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden, cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life. Rom. v. 12.

3. Rom. v. 12. By one man's disobedience many were made sinners. John iii. 16; Ps. li. 5; Rom. v. 15—19; viii. 7.

Rom. i, 32; Gal. iii. 10; Matt. xxv. 41; Rev. xx. 15.

6. Ezek. xviii. 19, 20. Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquities of the father? The soul that sinneth it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. Rom. i. 20. So that they are without excuse. Rom. iii. 19. That every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Gal. iii. 22.

IV. THE WAY OF SALVATION.

That the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace, 1; through the mediatorial offices of the son of God, 2; who took upon him our nature, yet without sin, 3; honored the law by his personal obedience, 4; and made atonement for our sins by his death, 5; being risen from the dead he is now enthroned in heaven, 6; and uniting in his wonderful person the tenderest sympathies with divine perfections, is every way qualified to be a suitable, a compassionate, and an all-sufficient Saviour, 7.

Heb. vii. 26; Ps. lxxxix. 19; Ps. xlv.

V. OF JUSTIFICATION.

That the great Gospel blessing which Christ of his fulness, 1; bestows on such as believe in him is Justification, 2; that Justification consists in the pardon of sin, 3; and the promise of eternal life, on principles of righteousness, 4; that it is bestowed not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, 5; but solely through His own redemption and righteousness, 6; that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needful for time and eternity, 7.

VI. OF THE FREENESS OF SALVATION.

That the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the Gospel, 1; that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by a cordial and obedient faith, 2; and that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth, except his own voluntary refusal to submit to the Lord Jesus Christ, 3; which refusal will subject him to an aggravated condemnation, 4.

VII. OF GRACE IN REGENERATION.

That in order to be saved, we must be regenerated or born again, 1; that regeneration consists in giving a holy disposition to the mind, 2; and is effected in a manner above our comprehension or calculation, 3; by the power of the Holy Spirit, so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the Gospel, 4; and that its proper evidence is found in the holy fruit which we bring forth to the glory of God, 5.

VIII. OF GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE.

That election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which he regenerates, sanctifies, and saves sinners, 1; that being perfectly consistent with the free agency of man, it comprehends all the means in connexion with the end, 2; that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely wise, holy and unchangeable, 3; that it utterly excludes boasting, and promotes humility, prayer, praise, trust in God, and active imitation of his free mercy, 4; that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree, 5; that it is ascertained by its effects in all who believe the gospel, 6; is the foundation of christian assurance, 7; and that to ascertain it with regard to ourselves, demands and deserves our utmost diligence, 8.

Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God; who hath saved us and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. IX. OF THE PERSEVERANCE OF SAINTS.

That such only are real believers as endure unto the end, 1; that their persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from mere professors, 2; that a special Providence watches over their welfare, 3; and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, 4.

X. HARMONY OF THE LAW AND GOSPEL.

That the law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of his moral government, 1; that it is holy, just, and good, 2; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfil its precepts, arises entirely from their love of sin, 3; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy law, is one great end of the Gospel, and of the means of grace connected with the establishment of the visible church, 4.

4. Rom. viii, 2—4. For the law of the Spirit of Life in Jesus Christ hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Rom. x, 4; 1 Tim. i, 5; Heb. viii, 10; Jude 20, 21; Heb. xii, 14.

XI. OF A GOSPEL CHURCH.

That a visible church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers, 1; associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel, 2; observing the ordinances of Christ, 3; governed by his laws, 4; and exercising the gifts, rights and privileges invested in them by his word, 5; that its only proper officers are Bishops or Pastors, and Deacons, 6; whose qualifications, claims, and duties are defined in the Epistles to Timothy and Titus.

XIIs OF BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER.

That christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water, 1; in the name of the Father, Son, and Spirit, 2; to show forth in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, with its purifying power, 3; that it is a pre-requisite to the privileges of a church relation, and to the Lord's Supper, 4; in which the members of the church, by the use of bread and wine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ, 5; preceded always by solemn self-examination, 6.

XIII. OF THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH.

That the first day of the week is the Lord's-day, or Christian Sabbath, 1; and is to be kept sacred to religious purposes, 2; by abstaining from all secular labor and recreations, 3; by the devout observance of all the means of grace, both private, 4; and public, 5; and by preparation for that rest, 6; which remaineth for the people of God.

6. Heb. iv, 3—11. Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest.

XIV. OF CIVIL GOVERNMENT.

That civil government is of divine appointment, for the interests and good order of human society, 1; and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored, and obeyed, 2; except in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, 3; who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the kings of the earth, 4.

XV. OF THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE WICKED.

That there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked, 1; that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in his esteem, 2; while all such as continue in impenitence and unbelief are in his sight wicked, and under the curse, 3; and this distinction holds among men both in and after death, 4.

XVI. OF THE WORLD TO COME.

That the end of the world is approaching, 1; that at the last Day, Christ will descend from heaven, 2; and raise the dead from the grave to final retribution, 3; that a solemn separation will then take place, 4; that the wicked will be adjudged to endless punishment, and the righteous to endless joy, 5; and that this judgment will fix forever the final state of men in heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness, 6.

Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God? 2 Pet. iii, 11, 12.

COVENANT.

Having been, as we trust, brought by divine grace to embrace the Lord Jesus Christ, and to give up ourselves wholly to Him, we do now solemnly and joyfully covenant with each other, TO WALK TOGETHER IN HIM WITH BROTHERLY LOVE, to His glory as our common Lord. We do, therefore, in his strength engage.

That we will exercise a mutual care, as members one of another, to promote the growth of the whole body in christian knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to the end that we may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

That to promote and secure this object, we will endeavor to uphold the public worship of God and the ordinances of his house; and to hold constant communion with each other therein, not forsaking the assembling ourselves together; that we will cheerfully contribute of our property for the support of the poor, and for the maintenance of a faithful ministry of the gospel among us.

That we will not neglect closet and family religion at home; nor allow ourselves in the too common neglect of the great duty of religiously training up our children, and those under our care, with a view to the service of Christ, and the enjoyment of heaven.

That we will walk circumspectly in the world, that we may win their souls; remembering that God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind; that we are the light of the world and the salt of the earth, and that a city set on a hill cannot be hid.

That we will frequently exhort, and if occasion shall require, admonish one another, according to Matthew xviii, in the spirit of meekness; considering ourselves lest we also be tempted, and that as in baptism we have been buried with Christ, and raised again; so there is on us a special obligation thenceforth to walk in newness of life.

And may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make us perfect in every good work to do His will; working in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ: to whom be glory, forever and ever. Amen.

HINTS RESPECTING THE DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

I. TO THE CHURCH.

1. To cultivate personal piety, by daily study of the scriptures, devout meditation, and secret prayer; without which, all other duties will either be neglected, or if discharged at all, be performed in a manner affording little happiness to the individual, or benefit to the church. Prov. iv, 23. John v, 39. Josh. i, 8. Ps. i, 2. Matt. vi, 6. Ps. li, 10—13.

2. Not to forsake the assembling themselves together at all the meetings which the church may appoint, whether for preaching, prayer, or discipline. Heb. x, 25. Eph. vi, 18. Acts i, 14. Rom. xii, 12. Col. iv, 2.

2. In case of personal offence, to follow, without the slightest deviation, the course directed by our Saviour in Matt. xviii, 15—17. It may be justly inferred, that a similar course is desirable with respect to rumors prejudicial to the character of any individual member. Prov. xxii, 1, and xviii, 8.

3. To embrace every suitable opportunity, especially when going to or coming from the assembly of the saints, to manifest affection by the methods usually practiced among friends, fulfilling the spirit and intention of the command in Rom. xvi, 16, and 1 Pet. v, 14.

4. To visit the sick and afflicted. James i, 27.

5. Faithfully to exhort, warn, and encourage one another. Heb. iii, 13. 1 Thess. v, 14. Heb. x, 25.

4. To be ready at all times to aid him, as requested, in every good work, and to bear forward with discreet zeal such measures as he may propose, and which shall tend to the good of the church or the community. 1 Peter iv, 10, 11. Rom. xii, 6—9. Acts ii, 42—45. 2 Tim. iv, 16.

5. To provide amply and promptly for his temporal need, that he may be free from all unnecessary worldly care, and may give himself wholly to the ministry of the word, and prayer. Phil. iv, 14—18. Gal. vi, 6. 1 Cor. ix, 11. Acts vi, 2, 4. Matt. x, 9, 10. Luke x, 7.

6. To guard carefully his reputation against slander or suspicion; to make no unnecessary exposure of errors or weakness, but regard such, if observed, with candor and forbearance; to place the most favorable construction on things not understood. IV. TO THE FAMILY.

1. If head of a family, to maintain constant family prayer. Jer. x, 25. Job i, 5.

4. To converse with their children on the goodness of God, their own sinfulness, and the only way of salvation; and to take every pains to show them that religion is reasonable, and will make them happy. Deut. vi, 7. Ps. lxxi, 24 and cv, 2.

5. To promote the religious observance of the Lord's day, not only by attendance on divine worship, but by avoiding worldly conversation, and encouraging that of a contrary character. Gen. ii, 2, 3. Exod. xx, 9—11. Isa. lviii, 13, 14. Acts xx, 7. 2 Pet. i, 5—8.

3. To maintain strict integrity in all pecuniary transactions, and unimpeachable veracity and purity in conversation; to exhibit a readiness to relieve the temporal wants of the unconverted; to be courteous to all, and yet never to be so pliable as to be led into sinful compliances. FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT of the Board of Managers of the Mount Pisgah Bible Society, presented at Antioch Church, Rankin county, October 2, 1848.

TO THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY.

Beloved Brethren:—The Board of managers of the Mount Pisgah Bible Society are permitted, through the goodness of God, to present to you their fourth annual report. We would here observe, that this Society has been in existence about four years. That we have had only a small sum to operate upon. During that time, we have circulated between 800 and 1000 Bibles and Testaments—about one fourth of which amount has been donated. We have been engaged in the work during the past year, and have great reasons to believe that many persons have been benefited in the perusal of the Scriptures that have been put into circulation by the operations of your Society. We are encouraged in this great work of christian benevolence, and recommend that you continue your operations.

The error referred to by the Treasurer in his last report, we have examined and find that he was correct in pointing out the error. May God bless you in all your efforts to promote His cause upon earth.

Respectfully submitted.
